Ten Surprises About the Unchurched

Surprise #1

Most of the unchurched prefer to attend church on Sunday morning if they attend.

Surprise #2

Most of the unchurched feel guilty about not attending church.

Surprise #3

Ninety-six percent of the unchurched are at least somewhat likely to attend church if they are invited.

Surprise #4

Very few of the unchurched had someone share with them how to become a Christian.

Surprise #5

Most of the unchurched have a positive view of pastors, ministers and the church.

Surprise #6

Many of the unchurched have a church background.

Surprise #7

Some types of “cold calls” are effective; many are not. The definition of “cold call” is simply “uninvited.” The type of cold-call evangelism most often resisted by the unchurched is an uninvited visit to their homes.

Surprise #8

The unchurched would like to develop a real and sincere relationship with a Christian.

Surprise #9

The attitudes of the unchurched are not correlated to where they live, their ethnic or racial background, or their gender.

Surprise #10

Many of the unchurched are far more concerned about the spiritual well-being of their children than themselves.

(Rainer, “the unchurched next door”, 23-29)
